A quick guide

- navigating the app
- viewing the programme and abstracts
- adding talks to your agenda

1. When you log into your account on the Mobile app you will see a row of icons at the top of the page.

The first four are the important ones, they are: profile, agenda, contacts and messages.

Setting up a profile

Q. Why should I set up a profile?

Setting up a profile will enable other delegates to locate and contact you. Important if they have seen your talk or poster and want to find out more. Having a profile will allow you to advertise your skills and expertise, or facilitate collaborations. You can put a CV on here, or link to your publications or webpage.

Q. How do I set up a profile?

1. From the ribbon at the top of the page click on 'Profile'

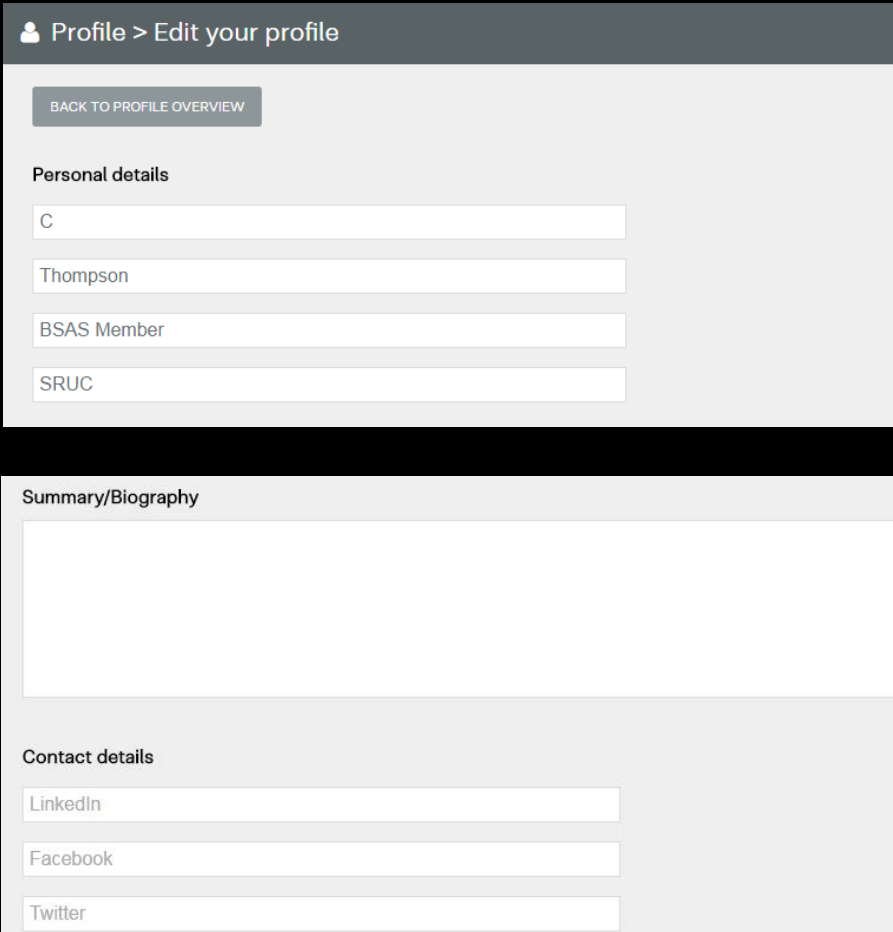

2. Click on Edit Profile

3. Your personal details will already in filled in. In the Summary/Biography' box you can type or paste in information about yourself, for example: research interests, job title and organisation, you can talk about your interest in collaborations etc.

You can also include web links here, for example to your research gate profile or your profile on your organisations website.

The 'Contact details' section enables you to include links to you LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter accounts.

The image shows a screenshot of a web interface for editing a profile. The page has a dark grey header with a user icon and the text "Profile > Edit your profile". Below the header is a light grey area containing a button labeled "BACK TO PROFILE OVERVIEW". The main content area is divided into three sections: "Personal details", "Summary/Biography", and "Contact details". Each section contains text input fields.

4. You can also set your contact preferences, which tell the app whether or not you want to receive email notifications from the app.

Contact preferences

- Send messages notifications to my email
- Send contacts notifications to my email
- Send agenda notifications to my email
- Send survey notifications to my email

5. And finally you can add a profile picture, by clicking on 'Choose file' and uploading a photo. Click on 'Save' to save your profile.
